DEAR COPPER HILL FAMILIES

Dear Parents,

October has been a busy and fun month for everyone at Copper Hill! We began with a District-wide spirit week to celebrate the "Week of Respect," with a different theme each day that week. Our PTO also held our annual book fair, with a great Family Book Fair Night this year, as well as our second annual Heritage Night. Thank you to our families who shared their heritage with our school community. We look forward to growing this event each year. Our October townhall meeting focused on school and community safety. Thank you Ryan Fisher from GoHunterdon for presenting on the importance of helmet safety. Thank you Mr. Curtis Yarbrough for sharing the importance of fire safety with our students.

Due to our PTO's generosity, we were able to welcome Timothy Rohrer to Copper Hill School to present to students and staff. Timothy is the author of "Timmy's Story: A Story About Autism and Friendship." Timothy is a young adult with Autism who advocates for inclusion and friendships. Our students and staff truly enjoyed Timothy's message. Our community continues to foster an inclusive school community. We had an exciting, fun, and "bootiful" Halloween Parade!

At our October 18 staff meeting, our Copper Hill staff completed a "data dive." A "data dive" is an opportunity to review NJSLA data, NWEA data, and other classroom data to target instruction and identify students' needs. This data review will be the catalyst for our instruction this school year. We recognize the impact of the Covid Pandemic and are working diligently as a school community to target our instruction and to accelerate student learning. We will continue to work together utilizing all resources and data at our disposal to target our students' academic growth. A special thank you to our teachers who worked tirelessly through the pandemic and continue to go above and beyond to meet our students' academic, social, and emotional needs.

As we enter the Thanksgiving season, and reflect upon our blessings, we are very thankful to serve with amazing professionals, and to serve our spectacular school community!

Looking ahead, we have parent teacher conferences scheduled for December. We will see you soon!

Thank you,

Jesse Lockett & Amy Switkes
